

REVISED

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS30162 / H0091

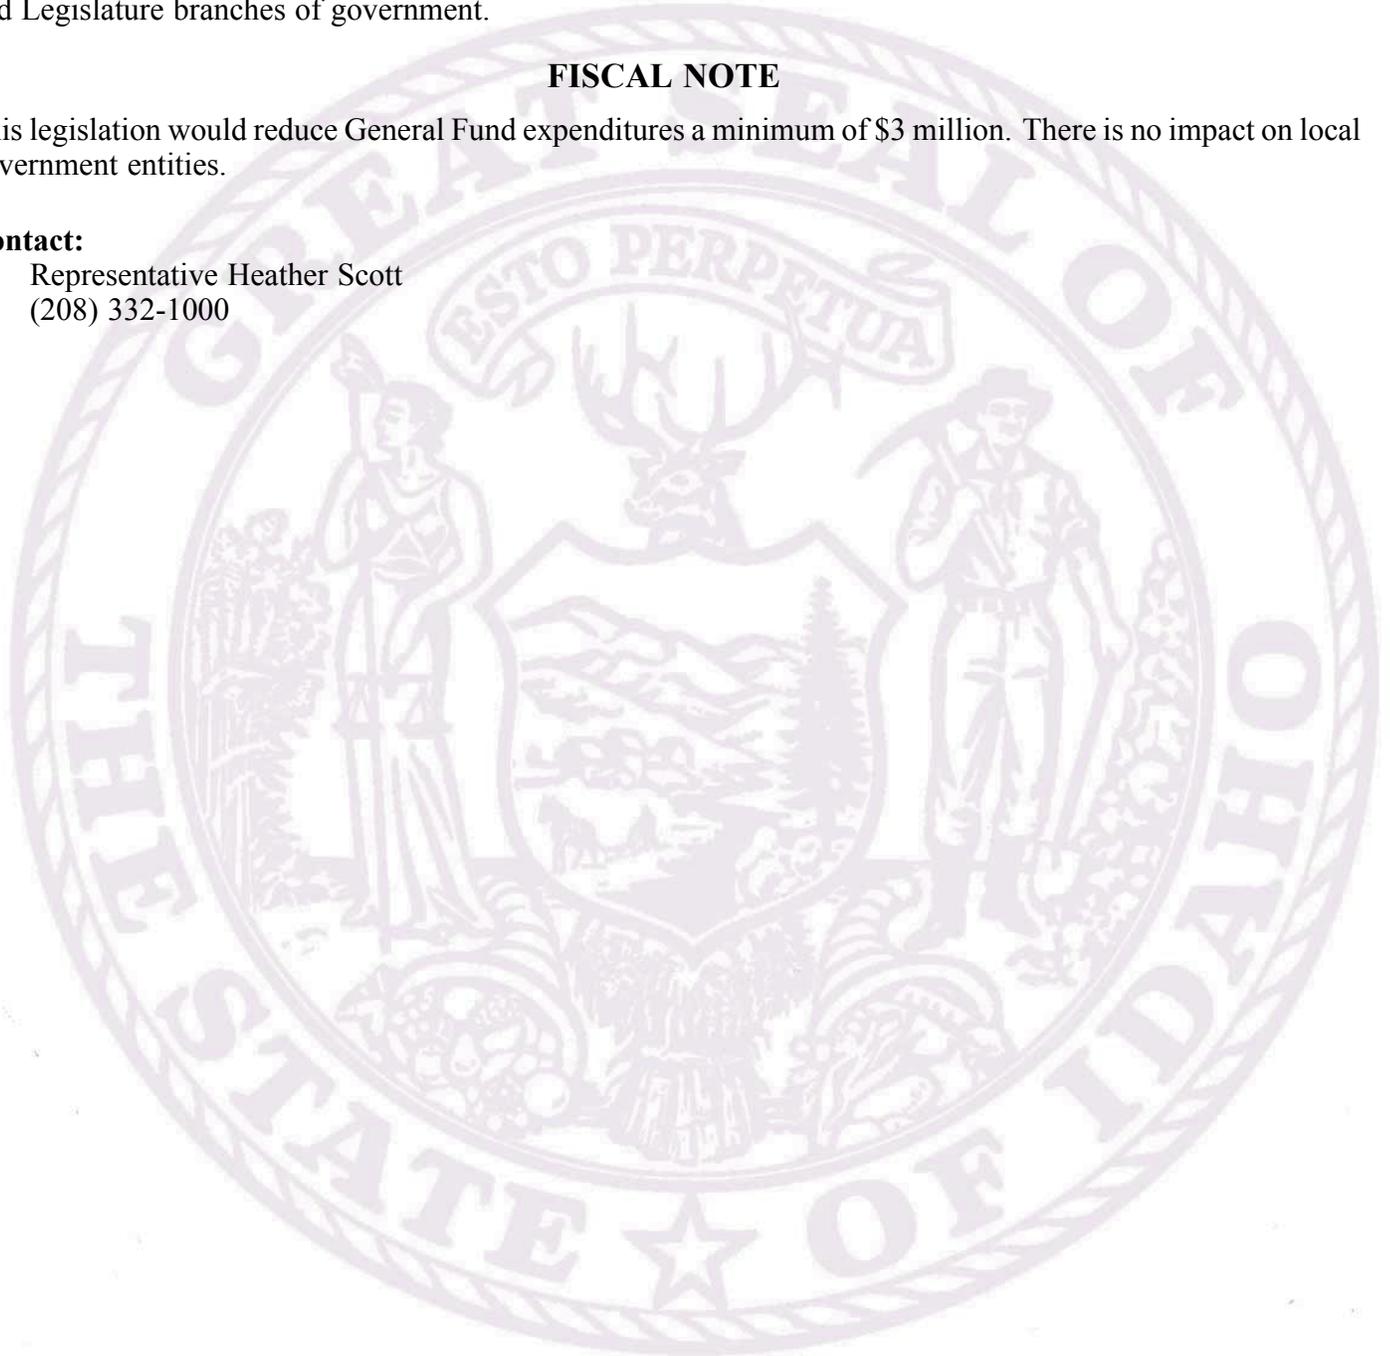

This legislation would prohibit the use of tax dollars by public officers, public employees, and subdivisions of government for membership fees or dues to any organization unless required to do so by law or required to maintain a professional licensure for state employment. This language would only affect the Judicial, Executive, and Legislature branches of government.

FISCAL NOTE

This legislation would reduce General Fund expenditures a minimum of $3 million. There is no impact on local government entities.
